Leader: As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God.

People: My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.

Leader: When shall I come and behold the face of God? My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me continually,

People: “Where is your God?”

Leader: These things I remember, as I pour out my soul: how I went with the throng, and led them in procession to the house of God, with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving,

People: a multitude keeping festival.

Leader: Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise God,

People: my help and my God.

Leader: My soul is cast down within me; therefore I remember you from the land of Jordan and of Hermon,

People: from Mount Mizar.

Leader: Deep calls to deep at the thunder of your cataracts;

People: all your waves and your billows have gone over me.

Leader: By day God commands steadfast love, and at night God’s song is with me,

People: a prayer to the God of my life.
