People: With the purity of a whole heart.

Leader: How can we redeem our life from vanity and give it worth?

People: By seeking holiness through kindness and love.

RESPONSIVE READING Matthew 6:19-26, 33-34 The Message

Leader: “Don’t hoard treasure down here where it gets eaten by moths and corroded by rust

People: or—worse!—stolen by burglars.

Leader: Stockpile treasure in heaven, where it’s safe from moth and rust and burglars. It’s obvious, isn’t it? The place where your treasure is, is the place you will most want to be,

People: and end up being.

Leader: “Your eyes are windows into your body. If you open your eyes wide in wonder and belief, your body fills up with light. If you live squinty-eyed in greed and distrust, your body is a musty cellar.

People: If you pull the blinds on your windows, what a dark life you will have!

Leader: You can’t worship two gods at once. Loving one god, you’ll end up hating the other. Adoration of one feeds contempt for the other.

People: You can’t worship God and Money both.

Leader: If you decide for God, living a life of God-worship, it follows that you don’t fuss about what’s on the table at mealtimes or whether the clothes in your closet are in fashion. There is far more to your life than the food you put in your stomach,

People: more to your outer appearance than the clothes you hang on your body.

Leader: Look at the birds, free and unfettered, not tied down to a job description, careless in the care of God.

People: And you count far more to him than birds....

Leader: Steep your life in God-reality, God-initiative, God-provisions. Don’t worry about missing out.

People: You’ll find all your everyday human concerns will be met.

Leader: Give your entire attention to what God is doing right now, and don’t get worked up about what may or may not happen tomorrow.

People: God will help you deal with whatever hard things come up when the time comes.
